

The theme for the family conference is “The Sanctification of God’s Children.” The first speech will be Tuesday evening. Rev. Martin Vander Wal will be speaking on “Sanctification and the Holy Spirit.” On Wednesday Rev. Andrew Lanning will give the second speech on the topic of “Sanctification and the Covenant.” The final speech on Thursday will be given by Rev. Nathan Langerak on “Sanctification and Good Works.”

Throughout the week the conference attendees will be joining together for devotions. On Monday evening they will gather for opening devotions led by Seminarian Luke Bomers. We look forward to having an enjoyable time of meeting and greeting one another while we sing praises to God. On Tuesday through Thursday, Rev. John Flores will lead us in devotions in the mornings. The focus of these devotions will be the members, faith, life, work, challenges, and needs of the saints in the Philippines. On Friday morning Seminarian Tyler Ophoff will conclude the conference by closing and farewell devotions.
